Course Choices and Other Program Information for Exchange Students

The electives list for the fall 2013 exchange period will be made available at the beginning of May 2013 but as a reference, the electives list of the 2012 fall period can be requested from your home school coordinator. Around 70 elective courses are available to choose from.

Learning Expectations & Course Load

Students set up their own course schedule based on the requirements they need to meet at their home institution. Students must be aware that access to certain elective courses will be limited and that they are not automatically assured a place in all of the courses that they have selected. 140 sessions are the maximum amount of electives that can be taken at IE (1 session = 1.5 contact hours).

Curve Grading System

Grade	GPA	Definition
A	4.00	5%
A-	3.66	15%
B+	3.33	25%
B	3.00	35%
B-	2.66	15%
C+	2.33	5% (failing grade)
C	2.00	Penalization
F	0.00	Penalization for academic misconduct

Language of Instruction and Language requirements

Programs are taught in either English or Spanish, some having tracks in both languages. Please check the Elective Index when posted for full information. The home school is responsible for ensuring that the exchange student has an adequate level of English or Spanish.

Other requirements

Upon official nomination from your home school, students will receive a welcome email with access details to Campus Online. In order to issue the visa-related letters as soon as possible, a data file, digital photo and CV need to be provided to IMBAExchange@ie.edu within the timeframe provided.

Access to Career Services

This service includes access to the IE Careers training programs, IE Alumni agenda, career events on campus including the annual Career Fair in fall and the IE Career Portal during the program and the following six months after. For more information please contact Careers.Online@ie.edu.

Accommodation in Madrid

Students must arrange for their own housing. There are no on-campus residences available. Assistance is provided by the Student Office (Student.Office@ie.edu).
