OVERVIEW

The NUS Business School is one of the eleven faculties/schools in the National University of Singapore. The School's degree programs offer students a global perspective with an Asian focus. They include the BBA, MBA, Asia-Pacific Executive MBA (English and Mandarin), UCLA-NUS EMBA, MSc (in research based programs) and Doctor of Philosophy. The NUS MBA program has been ranked among the top 100 in the world by FT and EIU.

Located about 12 km from the city centre, the University's main campus at Kent Ridge occupies approximately 150 hectares of one of the most scenic areas in Singapore. It is well served by communication links, being 20 minutes by car from the airport, close to one of Singapore's main expressways, served by several bus routes and familiar to taxi drivers.

The NUS Business School also has an established and dynamic Student Exchange Program. To date, we have hosted students from over 30 countries. Our partner universities include New York University, Fudan University, University of British Columbia, HEC School of Management (France) and University of Melbourne. We are also a member of the PIM \(Partnership in International Management\) Network.

The NUS MBA program offers a rigorous, relevant and rewarding education to our students. It is characterized by a strong curriculum with an Asian focus delivered by outstanding faculty members with extensive research, teaching and consulting experiences.

Areas of concentration: Finance, management, marketing, decision sciences.

Examination Results

Online results will be available one month after the last examination date. Request for early result release will not be entertained.

For Exchange students, two copies of your transcript (one of which is a complimentary copy for the student) will be sent directly to the relevant offices of your home university responsible for student exchange program; approximately two months after the completion of the semester (unless otherwise arranged with the partner university). You will have to make your own arrangements to collect your complimentary transcript from the relevant office(s) at your home university.

Faculty

The school has a rich international flavor as many of its faculty hail from different parts of the world. Over the last three decades, we have become the top choice business school in the Asia-Pacific region. This is possible with the 120-strong teaching staff in our school who regularly publish state-of-the-art research in leading journals. About 90% of them obtained their PhDs from reputable US and overseas universities. Many of our staff members have professional qualifications, work and consultancy experiences that are valuable in enriching the learning experience of our students and program participants.

Facilities at the NUS Business School

Facilities at NUS are vast and modern and include the Hon Sui Sen Memorial Library, which houses the Management Collection of 40,000 volumes. This library is part of the University library system comprised of six libraries with a total combined collection of over 1.89 million books and bound journals. The libraries also have a substantial collection of microfilms, CD-ROM databases, and periodicals. State-of-the-art behavioral laboratories, computer labs, and conference rooms also are at the students' disposal. NUS also offers wireless internet access campus-wide.

Career Services

Exchange students will have a ONE 30-minute session with Career Advisor which includes:

- Resume Critiques
- Review strategy for job search
- Interview preparation

A fee may be applicable for some services at the Career Service Office

Visa Details

No visa for entry into Singapore is required for nationals from countries that have full and open diplomatic and travel links with Singapore (eg. Australia, Germany, Japan, United States of America, Indonesia etc.)

A “visa for entry” into Singapore is required for nationals from countries that do not have full and open diplomatic and travel links with Singapore (eg, Afghanistan, Commonwealth of Independent States, India, Laos, Myanmar, People's Republic of China, Syria, and Yemen etc)

In such cases:

- (i) the Registrar's Office (RO) will (upon receipt of the Application Form) submit a request to the Immigration & Checkpoints Authority (ICA) for the candidate to be issued a visa for entry into Singapore;
- (ii) upon clearance, the RO will be issued the original ICA in-principle approval letter to enter Singapore;
- (iii) the original ICA in-principle approval letter will be sent to the candidate, together with the offer letter and other documents; and
- (iv) the exchange student must present the original approval letter, together with the offer letter, to the ICA official at the point of entry into Singapore.

IMPORTANT: Partner Universities who have selected candidates whose nationalities fall under this category must submit the completed application form to the Registrar's Office by official deadline. This is to ensure that there is sufficient time for ICA to grant the approval for the visa.

The ICA's homepage at <http://www.ica.gov.sg/index.aspx> provides a list of nationals from countries that require a visa for entry into Singapore.

Medical & Insurance Matters

It is compulsory for ALL full-time Non-graduating (exchange/non-exchange) students to take up the NUS Health Insurance Scheme. The GMIS comprises 3 components:

About Singapore :

Location The Republic of Singapore is a tropical island with 63 surrounding islets, which together form a total land area of 682.3 sq. km (168,603 acres). It is situated between latitudes 1° 09' N and 1° 29' N and longitudes 103° 36' E and 104° 25' E. Singapore has a very strategic location, which could be used as an ideal base for students who wish to travel in the nearby Southeast Asian region. Singapore it is also known to offer the best quality of life in the Asian region.

History The name Singapore is derived from the word “Singapura” or “Lion City” as legend has it that a Sumatran prince sighted a beast which looked like a lion when he first set foot on the island in the 14th century. In the year 1819, Sir Stamford Raffles established a British trading station on this island. Singapore gained its independence as a sovereign and democratic nation on 9 August 1965. It was admitted to both the United Nations and the Commonwealth of Nations in the same year.

National Symbols

The lion head is the national symbol of courage, strength and excellence.

The Vanda Miss Joaquim is the national flower which epitomizes Singapore's quest for progress and excellence in all aspects of life.

Climate Singapore is an equatorial country with relatively uniform temperature, high humidity all year round and abundant rainfall particularly during the Northeast Monsoon from November to January. It has relatively high temperatures with a daily average of 26.7°C and a high daily relative humidity of approximately 84.4%.

People Singapore has a population of 5.2 million which comprising of Chinese (74%), Malays (13%), Indians (9.2%) and other races (3.8%). There are 4 official languages - Malay, Chinese (Mandarin), Tamil and English. While Malay is the national language, English is the language of administration as well as the medium of instruction in schools and other educational institutions. The National Anthem is sung in the Malay language.

Festivals As a melting pot of many cultures, Singapore enjoys many colourful festivals. The Chinese celebrate Chinese New Year, the Dragon Boat Festival and the Mid Autumn Festival with mouth watering delicacies created just for those occasions. The Muslims look forward to Hari Raya Puasa & Hari Raya Adilfitri and the Hindus have Thaipusam and Deepavali. These festivals are occasions for all Singaporeans to come together to share their culture and traditions - visitors are welcome to join us! To find out more about festivals in Singapore, please visit http://www.singapore-city.world-guides.com/singapore_city_events.html

Lively Arts Scene

Singapore is a City for the Arts. We have a burgeoning arts scene and there are drama, music and dance performances all year round at various locations, culminating in the Singapore Arts Festival in June. Catch some of our free road shows and performances at the local gardens and parks. To find out more about Singapore arts performances and activities, please visit

Food Paradise

Singapore is indeed a gourmet's paradise, offering a cosmopolitan range of cuisines ranging from Mongolian to South African and Japanese to a host of European choices. Of course, you should not miss Singapore's famed local specialities, Chilli Crab and Hainanese Chicken Rice. You should also try Laksa (rice noodles in coconut curry gravy with shrimp, egg and chicken as garnishing) and Nasi Padang (rice with various spicy dishes). For casual dining, eat at a kopitiam which is a traditional type of coffee shop serving a large variety of local food. For breakfast, order some Kaya (sweet coconut egg jam) on charcoal-toasted bread and enjoy with a cup of local coffee. Another great combination is roti prata (Indian pancake) and teh tarik ("pulled" tea). Find out more about these interesting culinary delights from http://members.tripod.com/unique_sg/food.htm

Shopping Paradise

Besides being a food paradise, Singapore is also a shopper's paradise. Have fun buying everything from arts and crafts, antiques, gold-plated orchids, electronic goods, computer software to the hottest fashion! Check out the shopping list from <http://www.focussingapore.com/singapore-tourism/shopping/>.

Places of Interest

There are many places of interest including Chinatown, Little India, Jurong Bird Park (with the world's largest Southeast Asian bird collection), the Night Safari, the Singapore Zoological Gardens and the Singapore Science Centre. Sentosa Island is a resort island which is accessible by bus, cable car or ferry. It has a lot of attractions including Underwater World (Asia's largest tropical oceanarium), Volcano Land and Universal Studios. For more information, please visit <http://www.singaporeexpats.com/food-and-leisure/places-of-interest.htm>

Others

Singapore is a favourite stopover for tourists bound for distant destinations as well as nearby tropical resorts. Explore the region while you are here! It takes less than 3 hours to fly to Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia), Bangkok (Thailand), Ho Chi Minh City (Vietnam), Jakarta (Indonesia) and Yangon (Myanmar).

For a comprehensive guide for the student who wants to capture the entire panoramic sweep of sights and sounds of Singapore, please refer to <http://www.visitsingapore.com/> the official website for tourist information in Singapore.
