

Adam J. Falk, 32, is Managing Director primarily responsible for the firm's capital markets and portfolio management activities including originating debt and equity capital for Transwestern's principal investment initiatives. Mr. Falk also has origination, capital markets and portfolio management responsibilities for Transwestern Realty Finance Partners, L.L.C. Prior to joining Transwestern in 1998, Mr. Falk was a mortgage broker in the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan area. Previously, he was a corporate finance associate at the Carey Winston Company in Bethesda, Maryland where he was responsible for analyzing enterprise level investment opportunities, including mergers, acquisitions, and syndicated private placements. Mr. Falk has also worked as a Vice President of a private equity fund focused primarily on early stage, small cap corporate investment opportunities. Mr. Falk earned his BS in Finance from the Robert H. Smith School of Business at the University of Maryland-College Park and his MBA at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management. He is a member of the Urban Land Institute (ULI) and the International Council for Shopping Centers (ICSC).