

WILLIAM H. McLEAN, CFA

William H. McLean was appointed Vice President and Chief Investment Officer for Northwestern University in January 2002. He is responsible for managing the University's $5.6 billion diversified portfolio. Prior to joining Northwestern University, he was the Senior Managing Director for Asset and Investment Management at the Chicago-based John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation, responsible for overseeing all facets of the management of their portfolio. He also served as an Investment Officer at The Duke Endowment in Charlotte, North Carolina. A Chartered Financial Analyst, Mr. McLean received his BA in economics from Davidson College and his MBA from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. He is a past president of the North Carolina Society of Financial Analysts and past board member of the Investment Analysts Society of Chicago. He is also a director of Foundation Advisers, Inc. the overseer of investment vehicles for The Investment Fund for Foundations. In addition, he serves on the Board of Trustees of Father Flanagan's Trust Fund, the FAS Board of Regents, the NCAA Investment Committee, and as a director of the Kenan-Flagler Business School Foundation.