

Robin joined Lehman Brothers Private Investment Management as a Senior Vice President in 2002. Prior to joining the Firm, Robin worked in Morgan Stanley's Private Wealth Management group for 8 years, ultimately becoming a Principal. He earned his MBA in 1994 from Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management in Evanston, IL. He received a B.S. in Electrical Engineering in 1987 from the University of Colorado, Boulder. Robin was employed as an engineer with General Electric from 1987-1992. He achieved the Chartered Financial Analyst designation in 2001 and is a member of the Los Angeles Society of Financial Analysts. He serves on the board of Boys Hope / Girls Hope of Southern California and previously served on the advisory board of Orca Bay Partners, a private equity firm based in Seattle, WA. He resides in Palos Verdes with his wife and three children.