

Kellogg Financial Aid Information

Part-Time MBA Programs

As an applicant, you may have questions about tuition and options for financial aid. The financial aid application process is started only after an offer is extended by the Kellogg School. For inquiry purposes, here is some initial information that may be helpful as you research your options for financing your MBA education.

Part-Time MBA students complete a total of 20½ units to earn an MBA from the Kellogg School. Most classes are one unit courses, although half unit courses are offered on occasion. The ½ unit core course is not charged, so students pay for a total of 20 units of classes. The following tuition fees apply to the Kellogg School Part-Time MBA Program for the 2009–2010 academic year:

1 Unit Course: $4,907.00

½ Unit Course: $2,453.50

The following table illustrates the availability and eligibility for various forms of financial aid:

Financial Aid Type	U.S. Citizen or Permanent Resident	International Student (VISA)
Federal Stafford Loans	Eligible if you are taking two 1-unit courses per quarter. You can borrow up to $20,500 each academic year (only $8,500 of this amount may be in subsidized Stafford Loans). Students whose employers pay for part of their tuition also may be eligible for loan assistance. If you take fewer than two courses per quarter, you are not eligible for this option.	Not eligible
Private Loans	Eligible if you are taking one or more classes per quarter. Students whose employers pay for part of their tuition also may be eligible for loan assistance.	Eligible if you are taking one or more classes per quarter. Students whose employers pay for part of their tuition also may be eligible for loan assistance. You may be asked to provide a co-signer (who is a U.S. citizen) for a private loan.
Scholarships/ Grants	Since our students are employed, the Part-Time MBA Program does not offer institutional scholarships or grant aid.	Since our students are employed, the Part-Time MBA Program does not offer institutional scholarships or grant aid.
