Evoking the presence of the great compassion, let us fill our hearts with our own compassion - towards ourselves and towards all living beings. Let us pray that all living beings realise that they are all brothers and sisters, all nourished from the same source of life.

Different Generations - 43 Years Apart - 2 Social Justice Women Speak Out

Kathy Kelly & Doris “Granny D” Haddock

Wednesday, October 12, 2005
11 AM to Noon
Northwestern University’s Sheil Catholic
2110 Sheridan, Evanston IL

Doris “Granny D” Haddock, 95

In 2000, at age 90, Doris became a national heroine when she completed her 3,200 mile, 14-month walk across America to bring attention to campaign finance reform. In 2004, at age 94, she ran for the US Senate.

Her book, Granny D: You’re Never Too Old Too Raise a Little Hell, is required reading in many colleges. Doris is a sought after lecturer nationwide. “Doris Haddock is a true patriot, and our nation has been blessed by her remarkable life. Her story will entertain, inform and inspire people of all ages for generations to come” Jimmy Carter

Kathy Kelly, 52

Three times nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize, in 1996 Kathy co-founded Voices in the Wilderness, a group working to end the sanctions against Iraq. Kathy risked her life bringing medical supplies to Iraqi children for 10 years. Kathy volunteered for years with the Catholic Worker House’s soup kitchen. She has a Masters in Religious Education from the Chicago Theological Seminary.

Kathy has been jailed over 60 times for her nonviolent social justice activities. Her book Other Lands Have Dreams: from Baghdad to Pekin Prison makes it hard not to feel empathy for those that have suffered at the hands of US foreign policy.

This event is free and open to the public

As a part of our commitment to making the Church and our communities safe places for children, Sheil requires all those working directly with children to attend the Virtus training session for the prevention of child sexual abuse.

All students teaching in the School of Religion, parents working directly with children in the school, students and adults facilitating Children's Liturgy of the Word, and nursery volunteers must attend one of the sessions offered at Sheil this fall. CATHOLICISM 101 RETURNS

Sheil’s Education Committee and Seminarian, Ray Cleveland will kick off the Fall 2005 series of Catholicism 101 on Thursday, October 20 at 8:45 pm with “Jesus, Mary Magdalene, & Da Vinci”; A fresh look at the best-seller and the movie.

Join us for a light-hearted discussion on what was fact and what was fiction in this adventurous novel and soon to be released Hollywood movie.

For more information contact Mary Deeley at m-deeley@northwestern.edu
Bible Study & Bible Prayer Study

This year, Sheil is offering two different kinds of bible study.

If you want to read and study the interpretation, content, and context of biblical books and learn about what a biblical text meant then and what it means today, come to Bible Study on Tuesdays at 8:00 PM. After a brief prayer, we will read the particular passage out loud and delve into its meaning in a variety of ways. The session lasts about an hour and a half.

If you are a student who wants to combine the bible with prayer and reflection to deepen your life with Christ and learn how to live more fully as a Christian, come to Bible Prayer Study on Thursdays at 6:30 PM. We will pray, bring the concerns of our week to the table, read the scripture and reflect on what that scripture means and how we can apply it for the next week. The session lasts about an hour.

Homecoming Parade

Homecoming weekend is October 29 - 31. The parade begins at 8 p.m. on Friday and processes directly in front of the Sheil Catholic Center. Obviously Sheil’s front lawn is the perfect place on campus to gather and watch the best parade of the year. (yes it is the only one)

Plan to join us on the lawn about 7:30, enjoy some hot cider and donuts, as well as, the Homecoming festivities. All are invited to attend.

Volunteer After College?

Mary Deeley will lead a 3 week series of discussions on the many volunteer opportunities available to graduates immediately out of college.

Students will have the chance to discern what is right for them and what programs they may want to consider.

The series runs three consecutive Tuesdays beginning October 11, 25 and November 1. Contact Mary Deeley for more information: m-deeley@northwestern.edu.

WEEKLY REFLECTION

We pray for the grace to respond eagerly and generously to all the invitations of life. The table of life is set, not always with the dishes we prefer. Sometimes the table is less abundant and sometimes empty. It is still the table of life and we are all invited. The promise is still presented for our faithful openness.

We experience so many invitations to other banquets of life. They are attractive and easy to enter. So many respond to these forms of living.

The call of Jesus is but one voice among many. We can wonder at times if His way of living, of behaving are really what are life-giving, life-living ways. The promise remains, “on that day” and “on that mountain.”

At times it can seem as if we are dancing alone or not doing the right step or sitting at the right table. We come to the table of the Eucharist surrounded by other dancers, other invitees who are dressed to live. We hear the words again that we are dressed in His Body and sent to behave in the new way. When we live the Eucharist we are not tossed out, but sent out to be His inviter to dance His dance.

~Larry Gillick, S.J.
