

GIM India-Nepal Top 5

1

You can't avoid India & Nepal

With 1.3 billion people and ~50% of Fortune 500 companies operating in India, you will come across India and Nepal in your career after Kellogg. Whether you're a marketer, investor, consultant, or banker, get an in depth look now at a country that is too big to avoid.

2

Practical insights

Go beyond theory and learn from Prof Sam Ramesh, serial entrepreneur and cultural trainer for foreign executives who do business in India.

3

Let us guide you along

India is a complex country that can be daunting on first visit; sit back and allow our leaders to show you around!

4

Bang for your buck

Put those pennies back in your piggy bank, because India and Nepal are cheap and you'll have dollars to spare after your visit.

5

Stories for a lifetime

Holi, Taj Mahal, Bollywood dance lessons, and hiking in Nepal – just a few cultural activities that'll keep your friends and family entertained!

Initial Target Companies

Global Immersion in Management 2014 – India & Nepal

delhi | agra | bangalore | mumbai | kathmandu

GIM Adventure: 5 Cities March 16-30, 2014

Leadership Team

Sun	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
Flight		Delhi				Kathmandu
					Flight
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
Kathmandu		Bangalore		Mumbai
	Flight		Flight
30	31
Flight

Jebi Mathew
Field Study
jmathew2014
954-295-6433

Chetan Kundavaram
Logistics
ckundavaram2014
919- 271-9035

Emma Gergen
Communications
egergen2014
651-295-7519

Kalpana Waikar
GIM Advisor
k-waikar
847-467-2456

Estimated Budget

Flight, hotel, most transportation, guides, breakfast, several group meals, group cultural activities*	$3,400
Visas (for Americans)	$100
TOTAL ESTIMATED EXPENSES	$3,500

This estimate is conservative and has been developed to keep costs low. This is a budget estimate and may fluctuate.

Budget does not include most lunches and dinners, taxis, spending money, etc.

Delhi

Taj Mahal (Agra)

Mt. Everest (Nepal)

Indian dance

Holi Festival

Bangalore

Mumbai

Indian cuisine