“I NEVER IMAGINED I COULD DO SO MUCH IN A YEAR.”

The Kellogg One-Year Program was perfect for me. I wanted an MBA to advance in my current career, but didn't feel comfortable taking two years away from work.

Kellogg has more than 100 clubs you can join, numerous case competitions and opportunities for unforgettable experiences. I never imagined I could do so much in a year. I served on a team that won the Kellogg Marketing Competition. I was able to meet the CEO of Coca-Cola. I listened to a lecture by Nobel Laureate Muhammad Yunus. I took a KWEST trip to the Baltics, where I made 25 strangers my new best friends, and went on the ski trip to Telluride, where I saw snow and skied for the first time.

It's been a magical experience.

IMMERSION STARTS IN JUNE

All one-year students begin the program with an engaging and rewarding summer session. During this first quarter, you'll become accustomed to the rigorous academic pace of MBA studies and complete three to five courses. The remainder of your schedule will be filled with electives that match your interests and enhance your career goals.

Because one-year students are among the only Full-Time MBA students on campus during the summer, you'll have extensive opportunities to meet with career coaches and map out your short- and long-term career goals. You'll form supportive relationships with classmates, attend special events together and have time to get to know the faculty.

FLEXIBILITY AND CHOICE ACROSS DISCIPLINES

When the new academic year begins in the fall, one-year students join their two-year classmates as second-year, full-time students. During the remaining terms, you'll complete your electives, choosing from more than 300 courses.

You can delve into a select number of disciplines or go as broad as you like across 18 major areas of study. The point is to customize the MBA program to your goals.

Upon completion of the 15.5 course credits required, you'll receive your degree in June, one year after you started, graduating alongside your two-year classmates.

EXPAND YOUR EXPERIENCES AND NETWORK

One-Year students also have the opportunity to participate in Kellogg's many experiential learning programs, such as Global Initiatives in Management and Global Lab, which include international travel and consulting with businesses around the world. If you want more international experiences, you can participate in our study-abroad programs.

While the academic curriculum is the centerpiece of the One-Year MBA Program, you'll have many opportunities to participate in social and program-related activities to get to know your second-year classmates and expand your network. You can join and take leadership roles in any of the clubs, organizations and volunteer activities created and organized by full-time students. You'll also build a network of fellow students and alumni that will be an invaluable resource throughout your professional and personal life.

A CULTURE OF COLLABORATION

“I DECIDED ON KELLOGG BECAUSE OF THE INCREDIBLE, SUPPORTIVE CULTURE.”

I'd been in consulting for about three years and wanted to broaden my horizons with an MBA. I knew the One-Year Program at Kellogg would do that in a very short period. With my business engineering degree, I could bypass the core classes, major in anything I wanted and choose the courses that appealed most to me.

Even more important than the accelerated pace, I decided on Kellogg because of the incredible, supportive culture. It's hard to imagine what that means, but once you get here, you'll find the way people collaborate to help you – both inside and outside the classroom – is just amazing.

ELIGIBILITY

Upon enrollment, students must have completed accounting, plus five of the other required courses: finance, marketing, statistics, operations, economics, and organizational behavior. It is recommended that coursework be completed within the last seven years (starting from the year of graduation). Many of our students have completed all of the required coursework through an undergraduate or graduate program, but this is not required. Coursework is accepted from accredited universities, but we do not accept courses completed online. Upon admission to Kellogg, you may be able to complete outstanding coursework through the Part-Time Evening or Saturday Program. Students interested in this option should apply in Round 1.

COMPLETING COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Upon application, students must fill in a grid that shows which classes they have completed and which are outstanding. If you are missing one course, you may complete it over the summer at Kellogg. If you are missing two or more courses, you must complete all but one of them prior to enrollment. If you apply in Round 2, please be aware that the date by which you have a decision from our office may be after the date you would need to enroll in a spring course. Please review the enrollment deadlines at universities near you to allow adequate time to complete your course requirements. Please contact the office of admissions if you would like advice on which course(s) to complete prior to enrollment.

DETERMINING COURSE ELIGIBILITY

Because course names and content differ among schools, review Kellogg course descriptions to determine whether you have covered similar topics in your previous business education; see “Determining Course Eligibility” at kellogg.northwestern.edu/FT-1Y.

Review these course descriptions carefully as base knowledge of these topics is assumed for Kellogg courses. Kellogg admissions officers will also assist you in determining eligibility, if needed. If you have further questions, please download the eligibility template on the One-Year Program website and send an email to the Office of Admissions at MBAadmissions@kellogg.northwestern.edu.
