After reviewing your financial aid award offer, you must accept, decline or reduce your award online. Please make sure to click the submit button after you have made your selections to confirm your submission.

Borrowing from Northwestern University (Northwestern Loan):

- If you selected the Northwestern International Loan, you are accepting the loan by electronically signing the financial aid offer.
- Complete the 2018-2019 online application for the loan through CAESAR by navigating to the Financial Aid tile, then selecting Institutional Loan Application from the left hand navigation. The amount you are eligible to borrow is reflected on your financial aid award notice. (The Northwestern Loan Application will be available late June 2018).
- Once you are approved for the loan and the promissory notes are ready, the Student Finance Office will contact you (via a message sent to your Kellogg email address) to come into that office to sign the notes. Then the Student Finance Office will mail the notes to your co-signer for his or her signature. The Student Finance Office is located at:

  555 Clark Street
  Evanston, IL 60208

Private Loans (Other than Northwestern Loan):

- Students who wish to borrow a private loan should apply for the loan directly through the private lender.
- Once the lender has approved the loan, the student should send the name of the lender and the approved loan amount to the Kellogg Financial Aid Office at finaid@kellogg.northwestern.edu.

Thank you,
