SUMMER ELECTIVE OPTIONS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Executive Presentations (LDEV-452-5)</td>
<td>Highly interactive public speaking course. Learn to conceptualize, construct and deliver engaging and persuasive business presentations. Focus on engaging audiences, storytelling, data presentation, speaking authentically. Professor Barnes leads this &quot;great low-workload class and enables you to learn useful soft skills while also building confidence. Professor brings a lot of energy to class and is engaging…”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Beyond Diversity: The Fundamentals of Inclusive Leadership (MORS-462-5)</td>
<td>With the challenges and opportunities of diversity, this course provides evidence-based insights and practical strategies for how to accelerate full inclusion &amp; belonging as a pathway to sustainability / competitive advantage. &quot;Led by Prof. Pearce ...a master in facilitating difficult conversations, inspiring deep reflections and overall providing a lot of insights in this very difficult, complex and increasingly critical topic.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organizational Growth &amp; Transformation (STRT-969-5)</td>
<td>As organizations grow and evolve, this course develops your organizational intelligence (OQ) -- understanding how organizations behave and change over time and what that means for being an effective senior leader. &quot;Sally Blount (former Kellogg Dean) is a great lecturer and the content is extremely useful, both in managing organizations as a senior leader &amp; middle level manager.&quot;</td>
