

Decision Theory and its Discontents

April 30 - May 1, 2009

Sponsored by:

Center for Mathematical Studies in Economics and Management Science

Location:

Thursday: James Allen Center, Evanston Campus, Room 140

Friday: Jacobs Center, Evanston Campus, Room G43

The workshop will consist of 3 sessions and 2 panel discussions (one associated with Session 1 and the other with Session 3).

Thursday, April 30, 2009
2:00 - 3:00pm	Session One, Part One: Ambiguity Aversion (Faruk Gul)
3:00 - 3:15pm	Break
3:15 - 4:15 pm	Session One, Part Two: Ambiguity Aversion (Nabil Al-Najjar)
4:15 - 4:30pm	Break
4:30 - 6:00pm	Panel Session Moderator: Larry Blume Panelists: David Schmeidler, Peter Klibanoff, Luca Rigotti
7:30pm	Dinner at Stained Glass (invitation only)
Friday, May 1, 2009
9:00 - 10:00am	Session Two, Part One: Subjectivity, Objectivity and Alternative Models (Larry Blume)
10:00 - 10:15am	Break
10:15 - 11:15am	Session Two, Part Two: Subjectivity, Objectivity and Alternative Models (Ken Binmore)
11:15 - 11:30am	Break
11:30 - 12:30pm	Session Two, Part Three: Subjectivity, Objectivity and Alternative Models (Fabio Maccheroni)
12:30 - 1:45pm	Lunch
1:45 - 2:45pm	Panel Session Moderator: Ben Polak Panelists: Klaus Nehring, Robert Nau, Joe Halpern
2:45 - 3:45pm	Session Three, Part One: Applications of Decision Theory (Sujoy Mukerji)
3:45 - 4:00pm	Break

4:00 - 5:00pm

Session Three, Part Two: Applications of Decision Theory (Costis Skiadas)