

Brenda Gonzalez is Senior Manager, Healthcare Operations & Strategy at Farmacias Similares, one of Mexico's leading healthcare and pharmaceutical organizations. In her current role, she supports senior leadership by advancing strategic initiatives, improving operational efficiency, and strengthening cross-functional collaboration within a highly regulated healthcare environment.

Brenda is an attorney with a diverse career spanning litigation, corporate law, public service, and healthcare administration. She has practiced law in the United States, representing national healthcare and corporate clients in complex, high-stakes matters and advising organizations operating in regulated industries.

Previously, she worked as an Associate Attorney at Sinars Slowikowski Tomaska LLC in Chicago, focusing on asbestos defense litigation, and as Corporate Counsel at Enlivant, a national assisted living and healthcare services provider, advising on commercial agreements, regulatory compliance, risk management, and corporate governance. Earlier in her career, she served as an Assistant State's Attorney in the Juvenile Justice Division at the Cook County State's Attorney's Office and as a Law Clerk with the U.S. Department of Commerce's Commercial Law Development Program.

In addition to her legal and executive background, Brenda has professional experience in education, including teaching and academic roles in the United States and abroad, including at The University of Texas at Austin.

Brenda holds a Juris Doctor from Tulane University Law School, where she earned a Top 10% Trial Advocacy Class Placement and received the Pro Bono Rising Star Award, and was active in the Immigration Law Society, Tulane Women in Law Society, and Tulane Latinx Law Society. She also holds a Master's degree in Russian, Central European, East European, and Eurasian Studies from The University of Texas at Austin, where she received the Outstanding Master's Thesis Award, as well as a Bachelor's degree in History, with a minor in Russian, from the same institution.