

Juliet S. Sorensen

Professional Experience

Clinical Assistant Professor of Law, Northwestern University School of Law;
Clinical Assistant Professor of Management and Strategy,
Kellogg School of Management.....August 2010 –present

Teaching and research interests include international criminal law; human rights and public health; and local and international corruption.

Assistant U.S. Attorney, U.S. Attorney's Office, Chicago.....September 2003 – June 2010
General Crimes Section, 2003 – 2004; Financial Crimes and Special Prosecutions Section, 2004 – 2010.

Investigated and prosecuted violations of federal criminal law including bribery, conspiracy, mortgage fraud, immigration fraud, tax fraud, narcotics, firearms trafficking, export control violations, trafficking in stolen goods, identity theft, and more. Tried 16 jury trials successfully to verdict for the United States. Wrote multiple appellate briefs and successfully argued four cases before the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

Litigation Associate, Foley Hoag LLP, Boston.....September 2001 – August 2003

Defended depositions, drafted motions, and conducted legal research in internal investigations and complex litigation proceedings in the area of patents, trademarks, health care, securities, and commercial disputes. Successfully represented applicants for political asylum from Sierra Leone and Sudan pro bono.

Law Clerk, The Honorable George A. O'Toole, D. Mass., Boston.....September 2000 – September 2001

Conducted legal research, wrote bench memoranda, and drafted jury instructions for federal district court judge in areas including bankruptcy, the Americans With Disabilities Act, search and seizure, intellectual property, and contracts.

Peace Corps Volunteer, United States Peace Corps, Tinzouline, Morocco.....June 1995 – July 1997

Conducted health education and outreach for women and children in oasis valley in the Sahara in the areas of family planning, nutrition, sanitation, dental hygiene, breastfeeding, and vaccinations. Successfully obtained funding and supplies to build latrines at village school and hand sanitizers for health workers on mobile vaccination campaigns without running water. Obtained training for local potter in making reduced-fuel, reduced-smoke cookstoves, and assisted potter in selling and marketing.

Education

Columbia University School of Law, J.D, 2000

Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar, 1999 - 2000

Articles Editor, Columbia Journal of Transnational Law, 1999 - 2000

Princeton University, A.B. Politics, Cert. Near Eastern Studies, cum laude, 1995

Université de Paris VII, Paris, France, January – June 1993

Representative Publications

- Terrorism in Violation of the Law of Nations, Notre Dame Journal of International and Comparative Law (anticipated publication Spring 2012)
- Ideals Without Illusions: Corruption and the Future of a Democratic North Africa, Northwestern Journal of International Human Rights Law (anticipated publication Spring 2012)
- Why Corruption in Morocco Matters, article, American Bar Association Anti-Corruption Task Force, Insights from the Trenches, April 2011
- A Voice From the Past Rings True 35 Years Later: Ted Sorensen on the FCPA, article, American Bar Association Anti-Corruption Task Force, Insights From the Trenches, February 2011
- Restorative Justice for Victims of War Crimes, book review, 100 Northwestern Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology 1689-1698 (2010)
- No Free Money: Is the Privatization of Infrastructure in the Public Interest?, September 2010 (co-author)

Professional and Civic Activities

Task Force Member, American Bar Association Global Anti-Corruption Task Force, 2011 - present

Board Member, The Better Government Association, 2011 - present

Board Member, South Chicago Art Center, 2008 – present

Committee Member, Chicago-Casablanca Sister City Committee, 2004 – present

Board Member, United Nations Association Greater Chicago Chapter, 2005 – 2011

Term Member, the Council on Foreign Relations, 2000 - 2005

Emerging Leader, Chicago Council on Global Affairs, 2008 – 2010

Invited Presentations

Plenary Speaker, "Operation Crooked Code: Lessons Learned," Medill Watchdog/Accountability Initiative (2011)

Presenter, Notre Dame Law School, Third Annual International Law Symposium, "Terrorism After bin Laden" (2011)

Keynote Speaker, Chicago Area Peace Corps Association 50th Anniversary Celebration (2011)

Panelist, "The Globalization of Anti-Corruption Law," ABA Annual Conference Presidential Showcase Program (2011)

Faculty Lecturer, "Refugee Access to Health," Northwestern University Center for Forced Migration Summer Institute (2011)

Guest Lecturer, "The International Declaration of Human Rights: Does It Matter Today?" (2011)

Speaker, "The Center for International Human Rights: Human Rights and Global Health in the 21st Century," Northwestern University Global Health Week (2011).

Guest Lecturer, "Is There a Human Right to Health?" Health and Humanitarian Response program, Northwestern University Masters in Public Health (2011).

Master of Ceremonies, the John F. Kennedy Service Awards, United States Peace Corps, Boston, MA (2011).

Plenary Speaker, "Operation Crooked Code: Lessons Learned," Suburban Building Officials Conference, Illinois (2011).

Plenary Speaker, "Why Should We Care About the United Nations?" Third Unitarian Church Forum, Chicago, Illinois (2011).

Trial Advocacy Instructor, Benin (2010). Department of Justice Office of Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training. Instruction conducted entirely in French.

Panelist, "Prosecuting Human Rights Violators," the Department of Justice National Advocacy Center (2009).

Trial Advocacy Instructor, Colombia (2006 and 2007). Department of Justice Office of Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training. Instruction conducted entirely in Spanish.

Panelist, "Prosecuting Human Rights Violators," Human Rights Violators Conference of the Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (2006).

Languages

Fluent in French, Spanish and Arabic; conversant in Italian. Received "Superior" rating (highest possible grade awarded by Foreign Service Language Institute) in Moroccan Arabic.