

Jane Buchan is Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director of Pacific Alternative Asset Management Company, LLC ("PAAMCO"). Jane founded PAAMCO, along with three partners, in March of 2000 and has overseen its growth into a preeminent independent fund of hedge funds with assets under management exceeding U.S. $9 billion and offices in Irvine, London and Singapore.

As CEO of PAAMCO, Jane is responsible for overall business strategy and firm direction. Under her leadership, PAAMCO has developed a list of elite institutional clients and has been widely recognized as a pioneer in risk management. In her investment role, Jane oversees the convertible bond, sovereign debt and mortgage hedge fund allocations in the various PAAMCO portfolios, as well as guiding the overall investment strategy.

Jane is widely regarded as a leader in the hedge fund industry and serves on the Board of the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst Association (CAIA) and as an Associate Editor of the Journal of Alternative Investments. She sits on the Board of Carlson Capital, LP, a large multi-strategy hedge fund, and is a Director of the Torchmark Corporation. She is also a member of the International Advisory Council at the Guanghai School of Management, Peking University, and sits on the Board of Trustees of Reed College. Jane has served as an Assistant Professor of Finance at the Amos Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth.

Jane received her undergraduate degree in Economics from Yale University and her Masters and Ph.D. in Business Economics (Finance) from Harvard University.
