

Matching: findings, flaws and future

Sponsored by:

Center for Mathematical Studies in Economics and Management Science

Location:

Jacobs Center, Evanston Campus, Room 276

Friday, February 18, 2011

1:30 – 2:30pm	Parag Pathak: “The Mechanism Design Approach to Student Assignment”
2:30 – 2:45pm	Break
2:45 – 3:45pm	Eric Budish: “Matching Models versus Mechanism Design for Allocating Indivisible Goods”
3:45 – 4:00pm	Discussant: Utku Unver
4:00 – 4:15pm	Break
4:15 – 5:15pm	Philipp Kircher: “Sorting and Factor Intensity: Production and Unemployment across Skills” (with Jan Eeckhout)
7:15pm	Dinner at Stained Glass (invitation only)

Saturday, February 19, 2011

9:00 – 9:30am	Continental Breakfast
9:30 – 10:30am	Randall Wright: “Buyers, Sellers and Middlemen: Variations on Search-Theoretic Themes” (with Linda Wong)
10:30 – 10:45am	Discussant: Jan Eeckhout
10:45 – 11:00am	Break
11:00 – 12:00pm	Yeon-Koo Che: Role of Preferences in Matching with Randomization
12:00 – 12:15pm	Discussant: Marek Pycia
12:15pm	Lunch at James Allen Center , Evanston Campus