

Conference on Creativity and Innovation in Organizations

June 27–28, 2003

James L. Allen Center
2169 Campus Drive
Northwestern University
Evanston, IL 60208

Purpose

Scholars from around the globe will present and discuss cutting-edge research on creativity and innovation in organizations.

The conference will provide an opportunity for scholars in psychology and business schools to interact and exchange ideas for future research on creativity and, ideally, collaborations with one another.

Location and Timeline

The conference will be held at the James L. Allen Center, in the heart of the Northwestern University campus. The Allen Center is the home of Kellogg's executive education programs, as well as hosting conferences, seminars, workshops, and other teaching events. The building, located on the shore of Lake Michigan, contains classrooms (with state-of-the-art multimedia equipment), dining rooms, lounges, and a fitness center. It is only a brief walk from all buildings on campus as well as the shops and restaurants of downtown Evanston.

The conference will begin June 27th at 12:00 pm (with a group lunch at the Allen Center), and will end at 5:00 pm on Saturday, June 28th.

Fees, Accommodations, and Transportation

The conference registration fee is $200. This fee includes all materials, as well as breakfasts, lunches, coffee breaks, cocktails, and Friday's dinner.

You are responsible for your own airfare, transportation to and from the Allen Center, as well as your own hotel accommodations.

Hotel rooms can be booked in advance at several hotels in downtown Evanston, all of which offer a discount to guests of the university (be sure to mention you are a guest of Northwestern when booking a room): The Omni Orrington (847-866-8700; $79/night), the Hilton Garden Inn (847-475-6400; $115/night), and Best Western University Plaza (847-491-6400; $119/night). If you wish to stay at the Allen Center, a number of rooms (at $125/night) will be available for booking in late April. Please call the conference coordinator for more details (847-467-6079).

Evanston is easily reached from O'Hare International Airport in Chicago. A cab or limousine to the Allen Center is approximately $25. Cheaper flights can often be found out of Midway Airport on Chicago's South side.

Additional Events

On Saturday, June 28th, conference attendees have the option of attending a show at The Second City, the famous improvisational theater that launched the careers of many comedians including Martin Short, Bill Murray, Dan Akroyd, Tina Fey, and Gilda Radner. Participants can dine out before the show at one of a number of nearby restaurants in Chicago's historic Old Town neighborhood. Restaurant options and directions will be provided once you arrive at the conference. Any questions you may have beforehand can be answered by the conference coordinator at (847) 467-6079. If you wish to attend the Second City show, please check the box on your registration form and add $20.00 to your registration fee.
