Northwestern University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action educator and employer.

Northwestern University does not discriminate or permit discrimination by any member of its community against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, parental status, marital status, age, disability, citizenship, or veteran status in matters of admissions, employment, housing, or services or in the educational programs or activities it operates.

Harassment, whether verbal, physical, or visual, that is based on any of these characteristics, is a form of discrimination. This includes harassing conduct affecting tangible job benefits, interfering unreasonably with an individual's academic or work performance, or creating what a reasonable person would sense is an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.

While Northwestern University is committed to the principles of free inquiry and free expression, discrimination and harassment identified in this policy are neither legally protected expression nor the proper exercise of academic freedom.

For advice or assistance regarding this policy, contact the Office of Equal Opportunity & Access, 720 University Place, Evanston, Illinois 60208-1145, 847.491.7458

Northwestern University reserves the right to change without notice any statement in this publication concerning, but not restricted to, rules, policies, tuition fees, curricula, and courses. This booklet is part of a package of informational publications intended to provide information related to the Kellogg School of Management.
