Singapore
Considering a career in Asia? There is no better place to be than in this Utopian country. English is the official language, the tech scene is vibrant and finance is never out of fashion.

Malaysia
Meet Kuala Lumpur (KL to its friends), home of some of the tallest skyscrapers in Asia. 3 days in Langkawi with beaches, clear waters and jungles will make you forget about recruiting!

Indonesia
A growing middle class has led to a boom in the Consumer Goods industry (no wonder Indonesia is one of the most important markets for companies like Unilever). No better place to see it than in Jakarta.
