

Harvest Programs — Portugal 2026

In-person

Lisbon and Alentejo

Aug. 23–28, 2026

Portugal

Porto and the Douro Valley

Aug. 30 – Sept. 4, 2026

Portugal

Experience the magic of breathtaking Portugal, where lasting memories await you. Join us on an unforgettable journey for Harvest Portugal 2026, enriching five-day experiences.

These programs combine the academic exploration of AI and behavioral science with Portugal's vibrant cultural traditions in two incredible settings: Lisbon and Alentejo; and Porto and Douro Valley.

You'll enjoy hands-on learning through insightful sessions, engaging vineyard experiences, and luxurious accommodations.

Highlights

- Immerse yourself in a six-day intensive learning experience led by Kellogg Professors Sergio Rebelo and Alexander Chernev.
- Begin or continue on your journey of lifelong learning.
- Experience the harvest at a vineyard in Portugal, including picking grapes and learning the wine-making process.

Lisbon and Alentejo

August 23–28, 2026

A picturesque region in southern Portugal known for its rolling plains, vineyards, olive groves, vintage towns, and traditional whitewashed villages. Ideal for individual alumni or alumni and their partners, explore towns rich with history.

Learn more: kell.gg/lisbon-alentejo

Porto and the Douro Valley

August 30 – Sept 4, 2026

A spectacular wine region in northern Portugal celebrated for its terraced vineyards along the Douro River, centuries-old wine estates, and dramatic hillsides. Ideal for alumni and their partners, immerse yourself in the quiet farmlands of this renowned region.

Learn more: kell.gg/porto-douro