At the Kellogg School of Management, our distinctive cross-disciplinary approach to research and teaching drives innovation, creates real-world insights for business leaders and focuses on the issues most critical to contemporary business. It also drives our Executive Education program design, ensuring that you are not only exposed to the most current business thinking, but are ready to immediately and practically apply insights in your organization.

Kellogg is known for a culture that fosters collaboration and challenges leaders to think innovatively. Our programs exemplify that culture by creating an immersive, supportive environment where insights emerge.

The majority of our Executive Education programs are offered in the unique living-and-learning environment of the James L. Allen Center, which creates an ideal context to step away from your usual routine and spend focused time learning from the faculty and your fellow participants.

We are located on the beautiful campus of Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, on the shores of Lake Michigan, just a short drive from Chicago. You will benefit from the perspective and resources of a major research university and a global mindset that instills an expansive view of the world and your organization’s role in it.
Open Enrollment Programs

For high-potential individuals

Our portfolio of more than 40 open enrollment programs enables individuals and small teams to develop new skills, stay current on trends and address personal leadership challenges. In all our programs, you will join peers from across a diverse range of geographies and industries to learn from Kellogg faculty, who are on the leading edge of business. You will finish with a renewed sense of purpose, an expanded network and an action plan to deliver results.

Our online programs are developed for professionals in the early to middle stages of their careers, and help you build and enhance critical foundational skills that set the stage for your professional success.

Leading Fearlessly in Times of Change

In this era of dramatic economic and social change, business leaders are being challenged as never before — and the need for leadership development has never been greater. To respond to our participants’ requests and adapt to this new environment, Kellogg offers a different kind of executive education experience — live, online programming that offers deep insight and real-time engagement with faculty and peers.

Kellogg Executive Education Live Virtual Programs feature:

• Live Online Learning — Delivered in our live virtual classroom, with a limited number of participants to ensure maximum engagement
• Top Kellogg Faculty — Kellogg’s renowned thought leaders will share their knowledge and facilitate thoughtful discussion in real time throughout the program
• Peer-to-Peer Connections — Many opportunities to interact with your global peers through both formal and informal activities
• A Rich, Interactive Experience — A high-quality, transformative learning experience with timely, actionable content and seamless interactivity
• Credit toward a Kellogg Executive Scholar Certificate — All our live virtual programs count toward completion of your certificate

Kellogg’s live virtual programs have been purpose-built to deliver a world-class experience comparable to our in-person programs, with class sizes limited to provide a rich and personal learning environment. You’ll engage in real-time interaction with professors and peers online, immerse yourself in discussions and ideations surrounding the current world situation and acquire strategies and tools that you can immediately deploy to solve your most pressing challenges.
Kellogg Center for Nonprofit Management

The Center for Nonprofit Management educates and inspires nonprofit leaders, empowering them to maximize organizational outcomes and drive social impact. Bring your nonprofit’s unique mission and key challenges to us and discover a holistic approach to transformative leadership development in a collaborative learning and peer networking environment. With a focus on individual leadership, organizational effectiveness, general management and topics specific to the nonprofit sector, our executive programs offer a rigorous and relevant learning experience and the opportunity for real-world application of the theories and frameworks presented. You will return to your organization with an action plan to affect immediate, positive change. Let’s advance your mission together.
