OR

Build your own Executive Scholar Certificate by combining any of our eligible programs to earn 40 or more Scholar Points!

Specialization in General Management

You can achieve a General Management specialization by either:

1. Completing programs totaling 40 or more Scholar Points, with at least 8 points from each of the following portfolios:
 - Finance
 - Marketing or Sales
 - Leadership
 - Operations
2. Completing the Executive Development Program plus additional programs totaling 8 or more Scholar Points
3. Completing the Women's Senior Leadership Program plus additional programs totaling 8 or more Scholar Points

Specialization in Nonprofit Management

Individuals in the nonprofit sector can pursue an Executive Scholar Certificate in Nonprofit Management. This specialization requires the completion of four programs offered by the Center for Nonprofit Management, followed by a capstone program. Programs within this specialization are exclusive and cannot be applied toward other specializations. All requirements must be completed within five years.

For more information, visit kell.gg/kxnnonprofit or email nonprofit@kellogg.northwestern.edu.

*The General Management and Nonprofit Management specializations have separate requirements and may not be combined with other specialization options. Program Scholar Points value and Executive Scholar benefits may change at any time without notice. Kellogg Executive Education reserves the right to exclude programs from Scholar Certificate eligibility.
