

Speaker Bio

FAMILY WEALTH CONTINUITY CONFERENCE

Eric A. Reeves

Managing Director, Duchossois Capital Management (DCM)

Eric A. Reeves – Managing Director of Duchossois Capital Management (DCM), the Duchossois family's private investment firm. He also serves as General Counsel of The Duchossois Group, Inc.

Reeves was previously a partner in the Corporate Department of McDermott Will & Emery. His private practice involved counseling and advising corporate clients on a variety of transactional matters including commercial financial transactions, mergers and acquisitions and general corporate governance matters. He began his career in the Chicago office of Jones Day.

Reeves is a member of the board of directors of DCM's portfolio companies, Riverside Rail and SightMD. He is a member of the Investment Committees for Chicago Ventures and the Irving Harris Foundation, the Board of Advisors for Heard Capital and a Trustee of Rush University Medical Center. He is a member of the Henry Crown Fellows at the Aspen Institute (2009), Chicago United Business Leaders of Color honoree (2009), and a graduate Fellow of Leadership Greater Chicago (2007). He is an active member of the Economic Executives', Chicago and University Clubs of Chicago.

Reeves received a B.A. from the University of Michigan and a J.D. from The Ohio State University.

He and his wife Arin have two children.